

I am offended by Sinclair running a partisan political "documentary" so soon before the elections. Free speech means that more than one voice must be heard. The FCC must assure the citizens that the airwaves provide a voice for more than the owners opinion.